A BILL

To amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to require the President to set a minimum annual goal for the number of refugees to be admitted, and for other purposes.

1 *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Guaranteed Refugee
5 Admission Ceiling Enhancement Act” or the “GRACE
6 Act”.

1 SEC. 2. ADMISSION OF REFUGEES.

2 Section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act

3 (8 U.S.C. 1157) is amended—

4 (1) in subsection (a)—

5 (A) by striking paragraph (1);

6 (B) by redesignating paragraphs (2) and

7 (4) as paragraphs (1) and (6), respectively;

8 (C) in paragraph (1), as redesignated—

9 (i) by striking “after fiscal year

10 1982”; and

11 (ii) by striking “is justified” and all

12 that follows through “interest.” and insert-

13 ing “is—

14 “(A) justified by humanitarian concerns or oth-

15 erwise in the national interest; and

16 “(B) not less than 95,000.

17 “(2) Each officer of the Federal Government respon-

18 sible for refugee admissions or refugee resettlement shall

19 treat a determination under paragraph (1) and subsection

20 (b) as the numerical goals for refugee admissions under

21 this section for the applicable fiscal year.”; and

22 (D) by inserting after paragraph (3) the 23 following:

24 “(4) In making a determination under paragraph (1),

25 the President shall consider the number of refugees who,

26 during the calendar year beginning immediately after the

1 beginning of the applicable fiscal year, are in need of reset-
2 tlement in a third country, as determined by the United
3 Nations High Commissioner for Refugees in the most re-
4 cently published projected global resettlement needs re-
5 port.

6 “(5) The President shall determine regional alloca-
7 tions for admissions under this subsection, which shall—

8 “(A) consider the projected needs identified by 9 the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees
10 in the projected global resettlement needs report for 11 the calendar year beginning immediately after the 12 beginning of the applicable fiscal year; and

13 “(B) include an unallocated reserve that the 14 Secretary of State, after notifying the Committee on 15 the Judiciary of the Senate and the Committee on 16 the Judiciary of the House of Representatives, may 17 use for one or more regions in which the need for 18 additional refugee admissions arises.”; and

19 (2) by adding at the end the following:

20 “(g) QUARTERLY REPORTS ON ADMISSIONS.—Not 21 later than 15 days after the last day of each quarter, the 22 President shall submit to the Committee on the Judiciary
23 of the Senate and the Committee on the Judiciary of the 24 House of Representatives a report that includes the fol-
25 lowing:

1 “(1) REFUGEES ADMITTED.—

2 “(A) The number of refugees admitted to

11 is admitted to the United States; and

12 “(C) with respect to individuals identified
13 by the United States Government as refugees
14 who have been interviewed by the Secretary of 15 Homeland Security, the approval, denial, and 16 hold rates for the applications for admission of 17 such individuals, by nationality.

18 “(5) PLAN AND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.—

19 “(A) A plan that describes the procedural 20 or personnel changes necessary to ensure the 21 admission of the number of refugees authorized
22 to be admitted to the United States in accord-
23 ance with determinations under subsections (a)
24 and (b), including a projection of the number of 25 refugees to be admitted to the United States

1 each month so as to achieve the numerical goals
2 set forth in such determinations.

3 “(B) Additional information relating to the 4 pace of refugee admissions, as determined by 5 the President.

6 “(h) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this sec-
7 tion may be construed—

8 “(1) to inhibit the expeditious processing of ref-
9 ugee and asylum applications; or

10 “(2) to restrict the authority of the Secretary of 11 Homeland Security to admit aliens to the United 12 States under any other Act.”.
